Early Balloting

Fifth Ward where 22 voters turned out.

Big Turnout

In Middletown township, where the admission of Levittown into the township has become the main campaign issue Lower District 2, Bellvue avenue on the Reading Railroad, had a bigger turnout than in the presidential election, despite the fact that the District 2 polls serve only half as large a territory as in 1952, according to Republican Committeeman Norman Straw. By 10-15 a. m., 92 voters had voted. Fifteen voters were in line for ballots when the polls opened at 7 a. m.

The Middletown Upper District polls at Neshaminy High School had a crowd of 30 impatient voters when the doors were opened.

Tullytown borough reported the largest turnout at the polls as 23 early-bird voters cast ballots within 2 hours after the opening. William Heldrick, Republican Committeeman, and Democratic Councilman Arthur Leigh said the number of new registrants from the Levittown area is one reason for the great increase in voting.

In Bristol township, 120 voters, most of them Levittown residents, reported to the mens Bible class room of Emilie Methodist Church before 10:15 a. m. to cast ballots in the Sixth Ward's second precinct. The first precinct, at Edgely Fire House, also reported a large number of voters.

The voters were handed an array of write-in-stickers, by Elbert Kohl, independent commissioner candidate; Republican candidates Robert Morrow, for Judge of Elections and Laura Paulowicz for Inspector of Elections; and Democrats Bernard Korson, for Judge of Elections and Lois Patton, for inspector of elections.

Park Visitors

MRS. ANNA HAWKES HUTTON, member of the Washington Crossing Park Commission discusses the historic painting, "Washington Crossing the Delaware" with a group of students from St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J. Accompanying the group yesterday, were: left, Mrs. Ruth Knoll, history teacher, and Mrs. F. R. Flounders, school principal.

History Pupils See Crossing Park

The power of the painting of "Washington Crossing the Delaware", as a message of courage, determination and strength was discussed yesterday by Mrs. Ann Hawkes Hutton, of Edgely.

Mrs. Hutton, author and member of Washington Crossing Park Commission spoke to a group of students from St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J.

The students, members of seventh, eighth and ninth grade in history classes visited the park accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Knoll, history teacher and Mrs. F. R. Flounders, school principal.

Mrs. Hutton acted as guide for the group of about 30 girls, showing them Washington Crossing Methodist Church and the famous painting. They then visited the site of the crossing, and the Thompson Neely House.

At the graves of the unknown American soldiers, Joseph Titus, park superintendent and Joseph Jones, chief of the park police talked to the girls. Titus told them about the dedication of a flag staff at the site, which is planned for June. Jones paid tribute to the men who are buried there.

The girls had a picnic lunch in the park's pavilion in the upper section of the park.

Yesterday's tour was one in a series of historical trips planned for the history students. They will visit Pennsbury, the reconstructed home of William Penn, the old barracks near the state house in Trenton and various historical spots near Burlington. Definite plan for these trips have not been completed.

2 Cars Damaged, Driver Fined $15

Damage to two automobiles in an accident at Fallsington at 3:45 p. m. yesterday totaled $105, according to Patrolman Lawrence Nolan, Falls township. There were no injuries.

According to Nolan's report, Charles D. Satterthwaite, Fallsington, had halted his car in front of his home while his wife alighted, when the car was struck in the rear by one driven by George Exarchou, residing in the 4600 block of G. street, Philadelphia. Damage to Satterthwaite's car was listed at $25, to the Exarchou machine, $80.

At a hearing before Justice of the Peace John Melvin, Exarchou was fined $15 and costs. The charge was reckless driving.

She is survived by her two sons, Howard T. of Croydon, and Warner of Philadelphia. Funeral services will be Thursday at a funeral home located at 11th and Erie avenues, Philadelphia, at 12 noon. Viewing will be Wednesday from 7 to 9 p. m.

GEORGE K. SHAMP

A retired roofer, George K. Shamp, 60, died yesterday in Morrisville. Death occurred at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Hulsey, there.

Ill for a long time, Mr. Shamp was a veteran of World War I. He was born in Trenton, N. J.

Son of the late Thomas C. and Barbara Wentz Shamp, in addition to Mrs. Hulsey he is survived by a brother, William B. Trenton; two other sisters, Mrs. Charles M. Robinson, Morrisville, and Mrs. Ralph W. Springer, Trenton.

Funeral services will be held at two p. m. Friday at 45 N. Penna. ave., Morrisville, with the Rev. Harold J. Schieck of Morrisville Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery, Trenton. Friends may call Thursday evening.

IMPORTANT MEETING

It is announced that unless the posts of cybmaster and assistant cybmaster are filled at the committee meeting in Newportville Presbyterian Church this evening, called for eight o'clock, such posts will be vacant. This is announced in view of the fact that Alvin Cowles, cybmaster, and Walter Pooley, assistant, are resigning effective this evening. Therefore, it is essential, it is stated, that fathers of cubs or those interested in cub activities attend the meeting of Pack 44. It is hoped re-placements will attend this session.

JUNK YARD FIRE

Bristol's Consolidated Fire Company extinguished a fire at 5:05 p. m. Monday at the John De-Marchis junk yard on Railroad avenue, near Old Route 13. Cause of the small blaze was not determined, firemen said.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Merritt Godshalk
Pastor
Neshamony Methodist Church
Hulmeville

Religion is a personal matter. When man is confronted with God, it is in the person of Jesus Christ. The religious experience is one of a number of vital experiences for the individual. However, it is the most important one of those experiences. A man's religious experience determines the fullness of his life here and his destiny.

This religious experience is based on faith. The believer is reconciled to God through the one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus. Justification, being made right with God, is by faith alone. Martin Luther started a reformation in the Christian Church because he had a personal religious experience with God. He knew the joy of salvation through simple faith. The Apostle Paul found himself to be a new creature because of his faith in Christ.

Jesus taught Nicodemus that this new life necessitates a second birth. He said, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." (John 3:6) When one is born spiritually he enters into eternal life.

The religious experience is yours, the new birth is yours, the eternal spiritual life is yours. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved. Abundant life here and life beyond the grave depend upon your faith in the Saviour of the world. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16).

Prizes were awarded to Mary Susan Krings and Paulette Punzavitt. Game prizes were awarded to Joyce Craven, Winifred Jackson, and Joan DiLorenzo. Mrs. Albert Bentley acted as judge. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Wilmer Dyer, Madison street, is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hazel, Wilmington, Del.

Ronald White is recuperating at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. White, Pond street, following a tonsilectomy performed in Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, Thursday.

Howard David, Bristol street, is a patient in Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia.

Hugh Robeson has returned to the home of his parents on Hayes street after being a patient in Children's Hospital, Philadelphia.

Resting — After a Long, Hard Day!

Twenty minutes ago, the man you see in this picture came out of a long and harassing conference—tired, tense and with a bit of a headache.

And he said to himself—"I'll take the long way home tonight, and drive out by the waterfront, and let the Cadillac relax me!"

And that's just what he's doing.

If you own a 1953 Cadillac, you know exactly what's taking place. But if you don't—let's see what happens as he climbs into the driver's seat and lets his wonderful car begin its magic.

It's relaxing just to sit there—and look out over that long, beautiful hood into the beckoning distance.

The seat cushions hold him in buoyant comfort; the slender wheel fits naturally into his hands; great areas of glass surround him and let each glance reveal a panorama.

And, of course, he's proud—for it's an endless satisfaction to command such a respected possession.

And now comes the great lift to his spirits: He touches the key, and hears that deep-throated response so characteristic of a Cadillac engine—and, in an instant, he's off for a wonderful, wonderful hour!

Steering is no more than a gesture . . . the lightest touch on the throttle gets immediate action—smooth, quick and positive . . . the brakes are easy and certain under his foot.

So he just sits back and rolls along—with the soft sound of the wind for a lullaby—and the beautiful view for a tonic—resting, relaxing, at peace with the world!

His wife will never suspect, as he wheels into the driveway, that he was a tired and tense and weary husband just one short hour ago.

That's one of the nicest things about a Cadillac. It's a proven therapeutic for a work-weary man!

Try it, soon, at the end of a long, hard day. We'll furnish the car. You name the time and place.

GROUCHO SAYS, "Don't fiddle around when the town's burning with excitement! See the NEW 1954 DE SOTO on November 5th at your DeSoto-Plymouth dealer . . . and tell 'em Groucho sent you!"

Plenty of Bounce In Modern Music

By Inez Robb
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—(INS)—Modern national music may not do as much for the soul as the old-fashioned whistly kind, but it is just dandy for the liver and lights.
This therapeutic effect can be traced to the fact that it throws so many auditors and critics, too, into a sharp tussle—thereby giving the innards that shaking up which is supposed to be so good for them.
For this and other reasons the famous duo piano team of Arthur Whittemore and Jack Lowe continue to commission avant garde work from modern composers.
“We’re interested in all modern music,” the crew-cut Mr. Lowe said, and added cautiously, “we even like some of it.”
“We know in advance that there’s audience and critical antipathy to it, and that it will probably get bad reviews,” said Mr. Whittemore, whose nickname is “Buck” imagine calling Chopin “Buck.”
“But our self-respect is involved,” Mr. Lowe volunteered. “We feel the modern composer ought to get a break.”
All this was said recently, just before the Messrs. Lowe, 34, and Whittemore, 36, made two appearances with the New York Philharmonic-symphony orchestra. And it turned out that never were two phoephets more right in their own back yard.
The two works they had commissioned from modern composers Morton Gould and Ernst Krenek for the Carnegie Hall appearance were flagged down by the critics, who nonetheless found the Messrs. Lowe and Whittemore in fine fettle.
“It only proves that modern music ought to be heard at least three times before judgment is made on it,” Mr. Lowe said later.

Letters To The Editor

Hits Council

TO THE EDITOR:

On Wednesday, October 21, 1953, on page 12 of The Bristol Courier, you carried a news item head-lined “Close Bath Street Pit, Council Warns Owner.” It was then stated that Council President John S. Gallagher had announced that Bristol Borough Council had warned me as owner of a vacant lot on Bath Street, next to the Old American Store Building, to either fill in the lot or provide protective handrails, otherwise positive action would be taken. Gallagher further stated, “The resolution passed by Borough Council must be complied with.” “It is . . . a persistent danger to the children in the area.” Then followed a statement by the Borough Clerk that she had called me and that notice had been sent to Penn Realty Company of Mill Street.

The foregoing facts are erroneous and incorrect. I had no conversation with Mrs. Coles as reported, nor did I have any other notice from Council as of the time your news item was printed. The first notice I received in this matter was on October 23, 1953 in a letter from Agnes F. Coles on Borough stationery dated October 21, 1953, postmarked October 22, 1953, and sent to Penn Realty Co.

This letter makes no mention of a Resolution of Council, but merely requests my cooperation, and asks me to fill in or barricade “two open cellars.”

It is clearly implied in your news article that I had received notice, and ignored a resolution of Council. Nothing could be further from the truth. Members of Council, particularly its President, should certainly make certain of their facts, before publicizing matters which tend to put the taxpayers in a false light, and give the impression that they are not law abiding citizens.

I trust you will give this letter the same prominence you gave to the news item.

Samuel Rosen
(The Courier's Oct. 21 story quoted Council President Gallagher directly and Council Secretary Mrs. Coles indirectly. The Bath street lot and Council's attitude toward it were also mentioned in the Oct. 13 issue of The Courier in a story covering discussion of the lot and other matters at the Oct. 12 meeting of the Council. Ed.)

TO THE EDITOR:

I would like to add my two cents worth. I think the Levittown Civic Association is suffering with just plain old fashioned growing pains. Give them time, and they may grow into worthy citizens of Lower Bucks County.

The Township's Police Department is doing a fine job.

Would like to pass a bouquet to our BRISTOL COURIER also: k.e.p. growing is our wish for you.

WASHINGTON REPORT

By Fulton Lewis, Jr.
(Copyright, 1953, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 — Communism is an anti-God fanaticism which would establish its own atheistic, totalitarian creed to rule the world.

That realization is the basis for the world-wide opposition of the Catholic Church to all things Communist. It is the basis for the like opposition of a growing number of awakening ministers and churches of other denominations. It is the basis for my own since-the-beginning opposition. It should be the basis for the opposition of every individual who cherishes his own freedoms, of every individual who believes there is a God.

Sen. Alexander Wiley, R., Wis., chairman of the highly important Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate, emphasizes the point anew in a booklet being prepared by the committee for publication. Discussing the gravest threat now facing this country's internal security, Senator Wiley says:

“This great evil of our times is the fanatic, totalitarian creed, Communism, a new ‘religion’ of irreligion and anti-religion.”

“The central headquarters for the revolutionary spread of that evil atheistic creed lies within the forbidding walls of the Kremlin in Moscow.”

“The zealous disciples of that evil creed and their legions of dupes and fellow travellers may be found in the United States and virtually everywhere else in the world.”

“The purpose of the evil creed is the attainment of nothing short of absolute power in the world by the destruction of every other force which opposes it.”

“The techniques of the evil creed are compounded of all the Machiavellian devices used by power-hungry zealots throughout history. But the techniques have been brought up to date, sharpened, integrated in a cold, ruthless pattern of internal and external conquest.”

Christ Lutheran Church Organizes At Sunday Meeting

The words of encouragement that came to Joshua in the Promised Land of Israel are comparable to words of encouragement offered the Christ Lutheran Church of Levittown in the “Promised Land of Delaware Valley,” according to Dr. Charles Cooper.

Dr. Cooper, who is president of the Christ Lutheran ministerium of Pennsylvania, spoke at the organizational meeting of the congregation yesterday, before an audience of more than 500 people. Dr. Roy Winters, missionary superintendent of the ministerium, authorized the organization of the church. At a business meeting following the talks, the new congregation adopted a constitution and elected nine church councilmen. The nine members of the first church council include William Peterson, George Guenther, Lester White-kettle, Arthur Herring, Elbert Kohl, Joseph Schmid (cq), George Kelton, Hilton Francis and Elmer Stittler.

Pastor of the church is Rev. Charles Fair.

Falls Civic Group To Hold Election

Arthur Dover, port consultant to the city of Trenton and former manager of Trenton Marine Terminal, will show the color film, “Port of Houston,” at the next meeting of the Falls Township Civic Association. The group will meet in Fallsington Library auditorium at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

Election of officers for 1954 will be held at the meeting. Ballots have been sent to all members of the association, who are asked to return them prior to or at the meeting.

Candidates include David A. Clarke; Martin Perisoli, vice-president; Betty Hassen, secretary, and Mrs. Barbara Hooper, treasurer. Space for write-in candidates has been left on the ballot.

Rescue Squadman Attends Meeting

Harry A. Eckert Jr., Bucks County Rescue Squadman, attended a weekend convention of the International Association of First Aid and Rescue Squads at Greensboro, N. C. Eckert is international recording secretary.

Delegates representing 25 states, Canada and Mexico heard lectures on rescue techniques. The delegates included Civil Defense training leaders.

Firemen Stage Masquerade Function For Children
Members of Eddington Fire Co. were hosts at the annual Hal-loween party for children of that area in the fire station on Oct. 30. There was a large attendance at the festivities and prizes were awarded for costumes.

A program of games was carried out and refreshments served. Benjamin Turner was general chairman.

Sift Morrisville List Wednesday

A special meeting of the Morrisville Common Council will be held Wednesday when the 12 remaining applicants for the borough secretary or borough manager job will be sifted.

The council originally received 26 applications for successor to the late William H. Howell, borough secretary.

The council has not decided whether it will employ a manager or a secretary.

STORAGE UNIT BUFFET
PATTERN 226

Use these four units wherever storage space is needed. They may be used as separate units or combined as found most convenient. As illustrated they form a handsome buffet and china cabinet with base sixty-three inches long. The drawers and door fronts are of three-quarter inch plywood with tops and framing of solid pine. There are many beautiful plywoods available at all local lumber yards and they come in a wide range of prices, so before buying the material decide whether you want to use the cabinets for out-of-the-way storage or as decorative pieces. The directions on the pattern are illustrated with large three dimensional drawings. The pattern number is 226 and the price is 25c. Add 2c for first class mail.

All This for A Little Brown Jug (Empty)

Courier Staff Photos

When Burlington High came across the river to battle Bristol High for the Little Brown Jug last Friday night, these comely adornments to the Warriors' football efforts got right in the spirit of things. Above, the Bristol cheerleaders are decked out in copious straw hats and backwoods shirts for their halftime square-dancing exhibition. The girls in the front line, from left, Mary Ann Torano, Mary Lattanzi and Georgiana Diamanti, played the parts of fair mountain flowers. The girls behind, Beatrice Massello, Nancy Almond and Hilda Hamm, were their beaux. The photo at right shows head majorette Joyce Rauch in the middle of her torch-twirling act at halftime. Dressed prettily in a Daisy Mae, Miss Rauch spins blazing batons through her legs. Lights in the Bristol High arena were turned out to accentuate the twirling diodes.

1st Place Parkway Boosts Margin In Women's Pin Loop

Parkway Inn's women bowlers gained breathing room atop Bristol's Major league last week when they defeated second place Bristol Ford, 3-1, in a head-on collision with their most serious competitors.

Victory gave Parkway three and a half game lead over the Fordettes, who remained only a half game up on McDonald Electrical.

Virginia Hibbs of Emille rolled a 456 series to boost her average to 153.2 pins per game and hold the lead in that department. She is followed by D. Lazick with 151.3 and M. Manzo with 147. The latter holds the single game high for the year with 212, while Miss Hibbs' 507 series stands as tops.

ELIZABETH WOODWARD SAYS:

In Love With Love Or With Serviceman

"DEAR MISS WOODWARD: My best girl friend and I have birthdays two weeks apart, and the same friends, so we thought we'd have a mutual celebration and invite our whole crowd of about 30. Have you any suggestions for making such a party a success?"

Two hostesses with two homes—it sounds as though a split-in-the-middle sort of party would be the most fun.

The invitations should bear both names but the guests should be invited to just the first house. You girls decide which dining room can stand a best buffet supper for 30. The main course only, for the whole gang should be transported to the other house for dessert.

There should be two birthday cakes, of course, with the first one pretty much of a surprise. Your guests may think it odd to begin supper with cake—the white icing and birthday candles will fool 'em. But it's really a super-delectable sandwich loaf. You can get a round loaf of pumpkin or white bread, have it sliced thin, and spread each layer with a different sort of filling. Then "ice" the whole thing with softened cream cheese and put it in the refrigerator overnight to set. Sliced like any other cake, it could accompany cold sliced meat, salad, potato chips, celery curls and radishes. Mighty tasty and highly effective as a birthday stunt.

The second dining room table, once your guests get to it, might be a real sundae bar, self-service. At each end of the table place big bowls of ice cream, and ranged around the sides, smaller bowls of favorite toppings, crushed fruits, nuts, cherries, whipped cream. Let everybody make his own to eat with a wedge of a real birthday cake.

Changing the locale will be a novel stunt that will take some time, so the rest of your entertainment should be carefully planned and timed. The activity of a crowd as big as yours will be limited by the available space. You'll need no games at the first house, but you might plan to dance at the second. And dancing can be made special with some amusing partner finders and mixers.

You might match up famous characters in history with the quotations always connected with them. For instance, "Give me liberty, or give me death," with Patrick Henry. Or "the face that launched a thousand ships" with Helen of Troy. Or you could cut colored paper rounds into jagged halves, and make girls and boys match up for partners. Souvenirs of the party would be fun with the boys "favoring" the girls for one dance, and the girls returning the compliment for another.

Plan your menu and do your shopping together and divide the expenses. With each of you having half the party, your guests will have twice as much fun.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Your Birthday

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3—Born today, there is a certain deep serenity about your nature which makes you able to go through life calmly, solving your own problems and those of others without being at all ruffled. You are a person to whom others are apt to turn in a crisis. You are fond of travel and will probably have friends all around the world. Although you do not accept every individual into the intimate circle of friendship, you have thousands of acquaintances. You yearn for a happy romantic life and will be happiest if you find your marriage partner in your early twenties.

The stars have given you many talents, artistic as well as practical, and you have the gift of leadership, as well. In fact, you can select almost any career you may wish and make a success of it. You might easily become a crusader for some new cause and if you believed in it wholeheartedly you might become a great power for good in the world. Conversely, your influence could be used in the wrong direction. Thus it is important that your ideals are always held high.

Utilize your originality in business and you can become quite wealthy early in life. Learn to trust your intuitions implicitly. They will always give you a quick answer to any problem—and usually the right one, too. Since you are highly adaptable, you are always able to adjust yourself to all kinds of conditions with great ease. To find what the stars have in store for tomorrow, select your birthday star and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Wednesday, November 4
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Slow and steady, as well as a show of great accuracy, wins today's race! Get a lot out of it, too.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—If you are in a position to encourage someone who finds it tough going, do so graciously.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Don't overload yourself with the problems of others. Do what you can with efficiency and dispatch.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Sympathy and kindly understanding can smooth out the road for someone you love. Be generous with your help.
PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)—Avoid getting into an argument. If a discussion becomes heated, sidestep issues and compromise.
ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 20)—No matter what irritations arise, don't lose your temper. Count a good, long 10 before you answer.
TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)—Self-restraint is needed today. A display of emotions will do more harm than good. Keep them under control.
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Concentrate on your major objective. Scattering your energies will only defeat your best interests.
CANCER (June 22-July 22)—If your income needs increasing—and who doesn't, these days!—work out some practical plan.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)—This is a good day to realize some long hoped for ambition. For you, the signs are right for success.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)—In helping someone today, you may need to be an arch diplomat for an outright offer of assistance might be rejected.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)—A difference of opinion may arise over a difficult problem. It can only be solved by compromise.

A New Lutheran Church Is Born To Serve Growing Levittown Population

MAKING PLANS for the Hope Lutheran Church, to be built at Mill Creek and Haines roads, Levittown, was the first step. Members of the Building Committee, appointed to formulate plans, are (from left to right): John Thorsen, 252 Willow drive; Ernest Kusan, 10 Marigold circle; Howard Dufendach, 23 Peachtree lane, all of Levittown; and George Kraus, Makedfield road, Yardley.

ARCHITECT'S PICTURE, showing how the church will look when completed, is shown to church members by the Rev. Louis A. Kaufmann, pastor. The church will be a cinder block building with brick facing, and will seat 250 people. It will be used for worship service, Sunday school, kindergarten classes and meetings. It will cost $110,000, which includes $40,000 for land.

DEDICATION SERVICES, before the actual groundbreaking, were held Sunday in the group's temporary quarters, the Fallsington Library. Church members are shown leaving the library for the groundbreaking. The first Sunday school session and worship service of the Hope Lutheran Church was September 7, 1952, in the library. The site of the new church is a six-acre plot. The Eastern District of the Missouri Synod sponsors the Levittown church.

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONIES climax the months of planning for the new church. Officiating in the groundbreaking are (from left to right): Rev. Kaufmann, Dufendach, and Vlear Charles L. Ertman. More than 70 people attended the ceremonies which dedicated the building, which will be built to "the glory of God." Cornerstone laying will be within a month, and the church will be completed by March.

Native of Carolina, Woman Finds Role As L'Town Leader

By Barbara A. Zauner

Dorothy Caughman Hamilton, born and reared on a farm in Leesville, N. C., is now an active and enthusiastic clubwoman in Levittown. She lives with her husband, Benjamin and son Stevie at 11 Walnut Drive.

Mrs. Hamilton attended O'Neill High School, then South Carolina State Teachers' College in Leesville, where she took an accelerated course, majoring in mathematics. She received her B. A. degree in 1944, having been a guard on the basketball team and a member of the college debating and mathematics clubs.

During Dorothy's last year in college, a representative from the government atomic bomb project in Oak Ridge, Tenn., interviewed the students for employment by the Tennessee Eastman Corp. On graduation Dorothy became head of the records department, working on a project called "Y-12." The work at Oak Ridge was in its infancy and the grounds were a sea of mud.

Roomed in Dorms

The girls were given rooms in dormitories. Dorothy was fortunate in having her former college roommate share her living quarters there. They enjoyed it all tremendously, felt "it was like college all over again," but when the first bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, they felt it was time to hunt for new fields.

Mrs. Hamilton had never before been out of the South and "felt like exploring the North," so she applied for and was accepted for work on another government project at the University of Pennsylvania. It was her first plane trip, in September 1945, and she arrived at eleven o'clock at night in Philadelphia, knowing no one. The University had reserved a room for her at the YWCA, but the cramped quarters, the bare light bulb hanging from the high cracked ceiling, and the rickety furniture were too depressing.

She joined forces with another Southern girl and then were fortunate in obtaining a large comfortable room in an immaculate home. Mrs. Newton, the woman who owned the house, was a motherly widow from Virginia. She was a kind, watchful chaperone for the girls. They remained there until July of 1946, when, feeling they had enough of city life, they moved into a rooming house in Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Moved to Ardmore

In the meantime the government project had been cancelled. Dorothy then went to work for Towers, Perrin, Forster & Crosby, pension consultants for various insurance companies. She worked in the calculating department for five years.

From Bryn Mawr the girls moved in August, 1946, to Ardmore. There the young mathematician from South Carolina met a young sales engineer, Ben Hamilton, from Boston. They both had lived in the same rooming house for a month without meeting. He had just taken over the Philadelphia branch office of Albert & J. M. Anderson Mfg. Co., and was traveling around the country a good deal, and the girls were out to dinner any time he was at home. They were married March 1, 1947.

The young Hamiltons lived at the rooming house in Ardmore for one month before moving into a three-room furnished apartment in Philadelphia, a third floor walk-up. From there they moved to garden type apartments in Collingswood, N. J., and then on to Haverford Mansions apartment house in Haverford, Pa. At Haverford Mansions they did not permit children, so the Hamiltons moved to a tenement house on the H. Harrison Smith estate in Bryn Mawr, where their red-headed baby boy was born on April 14th, 1951.

Read About L'Town

Dorothy had been reading the newspaper columns and advertising about Levittown for months before she was able to get her husband out to look at the new community, but they finally investigated on Labor Day week-end, 1952, and came back to put in their application and down payment the following week.

Dorothy says, "I sold him into coming, and he sold me into buying."

They moved in Nov. 14, 1952, and have created a delightful decorating scheme, a harmonious blending of modernism and authentic early Americana. Overlooking it all is posted a sign saying, "God Bless Our Happy Mortgaged Home."

Mrs. Hamilton loves the young community, the active social life and the many varied fields the interested Levittowner can pursue. She is on the membership committee of the Levittown Women's Club, and, as the secretary of the welfare department, is working on the problems of retarded children.

Last Easter baskets were fixed for orphans and underprivileged children at the Christ Home, a non-sectarian organization. At present Mrs. Hamilton is on the dance committee for the Women's Club annual ball at the Hotel Hildebrecht, Trenton, on Dec. 12.

Started Bowling League

Mrs. Hamilton was also instrumental in starting the first ladies bowling league in Levittown. There are now six teams and they bowl every Thursday evening in Trenton. Bowling enthusiasts may contact Mrs. Hamilton because substitutes are needed for the nights when the regular league players cannot make it.

Dorothy coaches and pitches for the Willowood softball team, competing with the Pinewood, Magnolia, Birch Valley, Fallsington and Fairless Hills teams in the local softball league.

Dorothy's husband now heads his own firm, Hamilton Associates Sales, Inc., and spends a great deal of time traveling. His firm sells heavy duty electrical equipment. He did find the time, however, to help organize and become a member of the Levittown Volunteer Fire Dept., No. 1, Falls Township.

Little "Stevie," now two and a half years old, is a gregarious elf who has been taught to say "yes, ma'am" and "no, ma'am," his mother's southern influence. He joins his mother and daddy in their love for their neighbors, and pedals furiously down the sidewalks on his "trike" to visit the other members of the toddler brigade.

Seize Young Trio In L'town Pranks

Three boys, residents of the Pinewood section, Levittown, were picked up in that area last night by Patrolman Richard Chalfoux, Falls township. The boys, police were told, were causing damage to lawns by running across them. They were also said to have destroyed property at telephone booths.

The three were taken to the Falls township building and released to their parents. No charges were preferred, but the three were warned that if such misdeeds occur again charges will be pressed.

Trailer Home Destroyed

FIREMEN BATTLE blaze that made seven people homeless yesterday. Children, playing with matches, started the fire in a trailer parked at Greenfield Trailer Park, Route 13, Falls Township, according to Falls Township police.

Play With Matches; Trailer Burns

Seven people are homeless today because five children chose matches to play with. The matches started the fire in a trailer belonging to John Crane, Greenfield Trailer Park, Route 13, Falls township.

Crane had left for work when the fire started. According to Falls Township Police, Mrs. Crane discovered the fire and carried the children from the trailer. The children include Gregory, a year and a half old; twins Michael and Stephen, aged 3; John, Jr., 5, and Suzanne, 6.

Fire companies from Falls Township, Tullytown and Morrisville arrived to battle the blaze. All the clothes and belongings of the family were destroyed, according to Falls Township Police. Damage was estimated at $1,900. Police Chief Franklin Kirby said Mrs. Crane told him the children had been playing with matches.

Neighbors in surrounding trailers took the family into their homes yesterday.

Early Days Recalled For George School

The training not only of minds but of hearts, the transmission, not only of intelligence but of compassion, was seen as the primary duty in addresses delivered by Principal Richard McFeely, Principal Emeritus George Walton and others in festivities marking the sixtieth anniversary of George School.

Several hundred attended fall alumni day proceedings, including a banquet in Alumni Gymnasium. Lynmar Brock, alumnus, presided.

It was announced, in the course of saying thanks for the work of 650 volunteers in a school campaign during 1952-53, that the development program total now has passed $200,000. This fourth major campaign in School history aims for $530,000 over a three-year period to boost teacher salaries and improve facilities.

Have Obligation

Recounting physical and population changes over the six decades, McFeely added: "But there is a consistent, insistent note in all this progress. Such schools as this have the continuing obligation to stress conscience and responsibility as the main currency in the bank of human optimism."

McFeely reviewed the past history of the school. Made possible through a bequest a prosperous farmer John M. George to the Society of Friends, George School opened its doors on Nov. 6, 1893, he said. Students numbered 155, the faculty consisted of "three professors and seven teachers."

Early Catalogue

An early catalogue, McFeely remarked, specified that "Students are expected to use the plain language (Thee, Thou) both in their conversations with teachers and with each other." The plain language is rarely heard today, but the Quaker atmosphere prevails in the

All's Well Again! Police Shed Boat

Bristol Borough Police are again without a boat, after harboring one for nearly two weeks. Lardner Morris, 722 Radcliffe street, claimed the wandering craft.

Police found the boat at the Market street wharf in the Delaware river. Morris said the boat had been upside down on his float in the river.

Apparently the poles that supported the float pushed the boat off, when the tide rose, he said.

7 Offices In County At Stake In Voting; Sunday Movies Up

In addition to electing officers of their boroughs or townships, the voters of Lower Bucks County are playing a part today in the election of six county officials, a county judge and two state judges. Moreover, they are balloting on one county and five state questions. And in Tullytown Borough and Middletown Township they are voting on the question of Sunday movies.

The candidates for the state judicial posts on the ballot are: J. Colvin Wright and Harold L. Ervin, Republicans, and John D. Ingham Hook and W. C. Sheely, Democrats. Wright is at present a judge of the Superior Court and is seeking election to a full term and Ervin is president judge of the Delaware County Common Pleas Court.

Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite, who was appointed to the Court of Common Pleas of Bucks County by Gov. Fine in 1951, is unopposed in his bid for election to a full term on the Common Pleas bench and has Democratic as well as Republican backing.

Offices at Stake

The county offices at stake and the candidates are: Sheriff, C. LeRoy Murray, R.; Walter I. Ellis, D.; Recorder of Deeds, John A. Collins, R.; Joseph L. Harr, Jr., D.; District Attorney, Donald W. Vandersdalen, R.; James C. Bowen, D.; Prothonotary, Raymond Bleistein, R.; Rene J. Tritschler, D.; County Controller, Howard G. Krupp, R.; Incumbent, and Warren E. Long, D.; Jury Commissioner, Sanford F. Cunningham, R.; Helen Cliver, D.

The county referendum calls for a Yes or No vote on the question: "Shall Bucks County Create a County Department of Health?" One of the state questions asks: "Do you favor the preparation by a convention of a new constitution subject to ratification by a vote of the people?" The others call for votes on proposed amendments to the present constitution as follows:

Treasurer's Term

"Shall Section One of Article fourteen of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be amended to permit county treasurers to succeed themselves?"

"Shall Section eighteen of Article eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be amended to permit the enactment of laws whereby qualified bedridden or physically incapacitated war veterans who are unable to go to the polls may vote in their election districts?"

"Shall Section one of Article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be amended to permit the General Assembly to make special provision for taxing private forest reserves?"

Court Amendment

"Shall Section eight of Article five of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be amended to authorize the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County to detail judges of the County Court to hold the courts of Oyer and Terminer and the courts of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of that county?"

In Tullytown Borough and Middletown Township and also in Quakertown Borough and Warrington Township the voters will ballot on the question:

"Do you favor the conducting, staging, operating and exhibiting of motion pictures, regardless of whether an admission charge is made or incidental there to or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct, stage, operate or exhibit the same after two o'clock post-meridian on Sunday?"

2 Motorists Crash At Shopping Center

Two motorists, driving out of Levittown Shopping Center yesterday afternoon, collided as they approached the south approach to Levittown Parkway. Both cars were damaged.

Police Chief John R. Walterick, of Tullytown, identified the drivers as Dmytro Pucylo, of Fallsington avenue, Tullytown and Charles Moore, 2002 Alter street, Philadelphia. Pucylo was driving east and Moore was heading north, Walterick said.

Stopping suddenly in an attempt to avoid a collision, Moore skidded 30 feet.

Following in his Footsteps

Do shoes make the man? Recently, in a game between Morrisville and Pennsbury high schools, Joe Ketaner, of the Morrisville football team, was sidelined with an injury. But he was there on the sidelines rooting for his teammates. "Hey, Bill," he was heard to shout at one point in the game, "you've got to go down and rack them up. Let's see you do it—you've got my shoes on!"

This may be a superfluous footnote: but Pennsbury won.

They Think of Everything

The youngsters in Lower Bucks County have to be given credit for their foresightedness and common sense. On Halloween Night, we noticed, very few came to the door with small paper bags in their churric hands. Instead, they came dragging huge shopping bags behind them. You just can't put one apple or one dime in such a large receptacle. A whole box of cookies to each youngster seemed the only appropriate treat. Even then, we apologized a little. They didn't seem too resentful.

It's A Fact

The head of the new firm formed to build an inn next to the Bucks County Playhouse is Monte Proser, Proser produced the Broadway hit "High Button Shoes." In addition to his production work, he's operator of the Copacabana in New York. He also has several clubs and inns in Hollywood and in Saratoga Springs, New York.

Man-Hunt

The hunting season has just opened; yet, many deaths—accidental—have already been reported. We can't help wondering who should be the more fearful: the hunted or the hunters. The score for the "bagging" of each seems just about even at this point.

Work Can Be Fun

One of the chief topics of discussion at the Workshop today at the Delhaas High School—attended by parents and teachers—is the co-operative work program the school intends to initiate. The program includes job opportunities, in the school and the school community, for tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders. Jobs available, for which students will get school credit, are varied. A partial list includes stenography, typing, clerical, sales, management and receptionist. One of the main features of the workshop—at least as far as the students are concerned—was that school was closed all day for the meeting.
